CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

- September—Boy! Were we green! Couldn't find the office. Walked into Miss Kraemer's office by mistake. . . . Results.
- October—We finally decided that East Side was minus an elevator.
- November—Worked up enough nerve to peek in at the 4A dances. Stayed near the side lines. We were called wallflowers by upper classmen. (But just you wait, there'll come a day.)
- December—Santa Claus treated us exceptionally well. Stella Wenk received a big rubber doll that talked, Herman Lennert a Choo Choo train, and Carmen Zeoli a fire engine. (Time we all grew up.)
- January—REPORT CARDS. Gosh, these F's really count!
William Beierle: "One line more is better than one line less. So one line added to the F's on my card will fool mother." Oh Yes!!!
- February—Now we could hold our noses a fraction of an inch higher.
Reason: Why, we're educated freshmen!!! One very brilliant example of our intelligence. . . . ?
ENGLISH INSTRUCTOR: "Are you smoking back there, Mr. Gaska?"
JOE GASKA: "No Sir, that's just the fog I'm in."
- March—MARIE SIGLE became poetry-minded:
Play Safe
The Ivy is a clinging vine;
And pleasing to the view,
But let the poison ivy twine,
And it won't pester you.
- April—Freshman Girls started making eyes at Senior Boys. No Results???? (But, Evelynne Bialek and Stella Majek aren't doing so bad now!)
- May—Cut list increased three-fold. Fresh air classes initiated new members in the park. (Only daily cutters eligible for membership, of which "Sonny" Heinrichs is president.)
- June—PROMOTION: Yes, truth is stranger than fiction, because everyone passed into the Sophomore year. Oh Yeah??? Vacation time ahead!!!

SOPHOMORE YEAR

- September—First class of the Annex came to East Side—members of our class. Started ribbing freshmen. Called "saps" in return. Something must be wrong?
- October—Siclari, Elmendorf and Addeo seen twice weekly exercising their vocal cords. They certainly made some trio? (Wonder why the corridors are empty. Then, of course, their singing had nothing whatsoever to do with it.)
- November—MARK ANTONY'S speech had a great effect on PHILIP PECK. He decided to become a politician. (Who can tell! Stranger things have happened?)
- December—Worked harder, studied every night. (CHRISTMAS is just around the corner.)
- January—VITO BITTNER made five NEW YEAR'S resolutions:
1. I will not make eyes at an ugly looking girl. (Unless, of course, she has money.)
2. I will not chew gum, smoke or go to the movies. (Unless some one takes me.)
3. I will do my home work every night. (Unless I have something more interesting to do.)
4. I will not get into so many scraps with the boys. (That's only if they are taller than I am.)
5. I will not cut class. (Except on sunny and warm days.)
- February—VERNA FIX wrote a short, short story for English entitled "Three Generations."
Grandfather had a farm, Father had a garden, Son had a can opener.
(She still refuses to tell her mother the grade she received.)
- March—"Ivanhoe" proved to be Helen Muraska's, Dot Lipfert's, Mary Policastro's, Valeria Sluzy's, and Betty Mezichraiky's dream prince.

April—MR. LAUGHTON'S uncrushable hat celebrated its 10th anniversary. Only sophomores attended gala occasion. (That's us.)

May—LILLIAN SANDHERR and ANNE McCABE started smashing the tennis rackets about.

June—TEACHERS wishing for a HAPPY VACATION!

JUNIOR YEAR

September—Class organized. Officers chosen—

President: JOSEPH VENTRE

Secretary: CARMEN ZEOLI

Vice-President: MARGARET GARBARINI

Treasurer: MARIE SIGLE

October—Gave first dance. Proved to be a great success.

November—The class was well organized and well under way after success of the dance. Much ado about nothing and much to do about our dues.

December—CHRISTMAS! Naturally everything was anything but normal. Class dues fell below, well below par.

January—Excitement—EXAMS on the way and boy, what exams! (Will I pass? I DID PASS. Whew!!! D—).

February—We're grown up now. Or are we? Well, we are 3A's, aren't we? We elected our officers.

President: CHARLES KRIEGER

Secretary: ANN McCABE

Vice-President: LILLIAN SANDHERR

Treasurer: EDWARD KULA

March—Do you remember that almost fatal day? The AMATEUR SHOW. All the hustle, and bustle, and worry, and hair-tearing. But oh, what a success!

April—Could be—APRIL FOOLS—we all are, (Irony)

May—All's quiet on the eastern front. Everything's going along quietly, but not for long.

June—They're here again, those %*?@ EXAMS! Shall we pass? Yippee, we did. We are now SENIORS.

SENIOR YEAR

September—Returned eagerly from vacation (oh yeah!) and what did we do—we started campaigning for class officers, and "boy" what campaigning!! as was never seen before—lights, signs, bribes, pleas—

October—The outcome of our vicious campaigning was outstanding—most favorable. We had that man of personality as President, none other than Monsieur ALEX MORSEWICH—That gal, o'er-brimming with class spirit, Mademoiselle LILLIAN SANDHERR, as Vice President. That hard-headed business gent, EDWARD KULA, Treasurer, and that sweet-tempered Miss ELEANOR PODLAS, Secretary.

November—Remember those 4A's who "wrecked" us—we'll never forget 'em, eh friends. "A wonderful time was had by all" (?) Well, better luck, next time.

December—Ah-h—Lookie, lookie, lookie, here comes cookie with a stunning new gown—Well, its our PROM—ain't—oops—isn't it.

January—Oh—fatal day—here comes DOOM (our REPORT CARDS). Whee! PASSED—D.

SENIOR YEAR 4A

February—"Hi ya, Jack. What's the matter? Oh, I get it—you're a senior A, huh? Okay."

March—"Andy! Andy Hardy, come right here this minute." Remember, well it's our senior play "SKIDDING." Talk of successes, this one knocked 'em in the aisles. Yes-siree, it sure did.

April—Well, if ever the campaigning was hot before, it was now—and talk of candidates—if you werent a candidate, you were a publicity man. Oh! Well—it's all over. The results were the same as last term.

May—PSYCHE—PSYCHOLOGY—Ooh, my head, talk about an ache—this hurts; and how. Hours and hours of labor and toil. But it was worth it (?)

June—Woe is me, woe is me; that MOST fatal day. Will I graduate? My REPORT CARD, let me see my card. HELP, hold me—Whee—PASSED—Whoopee—D PLUS.

In 1937 Miss Gilbert introduced archery to the girls at East Side High School. Before long they became quite expert at it and entered the spring tournaments. They didn't "walk away" with all the honors but they did make a magnificent showing.

Our class was well represented by such members as: Marie Corres, Doris Gentile, Magdalene Kircher, Wanda Kadolka, Stella Majek, Betty Mezichraiky, Helen Muraska, Martha Repke, Lillian Sandherr, Helen Schroeck, Valeria Sluzy, Marion Stankus, Elizabeth Woodard, and Gladys Wojaski.

The ablest female Robin Hoods of the group were: Doris Gentile, Lillian Sandherr, Marion Stankus and Helen Muraska. Doris Gentile and Marion Stankus were high scorers in the last spring tournament and Marion Stankus and Lillian Sandherr represented East Side among the ten highest scorers in the state. In this year's N.J.A.A. final tournament, East Side placed fourth with Marion Stankus placing sixth in the individual state scores.

The following girls obtained their emblems for which they had to average a score of forty or more for six ends. These emblems are coveted by all archers and each girl is determined to own one. Marie Corres, Doris Gentile, Helen Muraska, Lillian Sandherr, Valeria Sluzy, and Marion Stankus were the fortunate maids.

The Archery Team (Marie Corres, Doris Gentile, Lillian Sandherr, and Marion Stankus) took part in the annual Panzer tournament. They had the unusual experience of shooting in a tournament at the New York World's Fair,

GIRLS BOWLING TEAM

ADVISER — Miss Gilbert

CHAIRMAN — Evelynne Bialek

Any Monday afternoon at 3:00 P. M. strange phrases such as "set 'em up," "spare," "strike" and "in the alley" could be heard coming up from the St. Casimer's Bowling Alleys. If one decided to investigate he would have found Evelynne Bialek, Lottie Fella, Verna Fix, Magdalene Kircher, and Stella Majek, Doris Gentile, Valeria Sluzy, Helen Muraska, and Marie Corres putting sneakers on their feet and pumice on their hands. He would also have seen Betty Mezichariky, Lillian Sandherr, Stella Wenk, Veronica Sagitas, Gladys Wojaski, Gladys Byk, Emily Skowron, Marie Corres, Geradine Vogt and Marion Stankus picking out and testing their bowling balls.

The girls, under the leadership of their friend and adviser Miss Gilbert, are charter members of the Girls Bowling Club of East Side High School which was started in February 1939. Most of the lasses, bowling for the first time, have scores anyone would be proud of. Much credit is due Evelynne Bialek for her interest and leadership in helping to organize this popular club,

These feminine bowlers have become good sports and they have contributed their share in organizing and starting a club which has become increasingly popular.

BOYS

Another June, another graduation, and another flock of athletes leave their Alma Mater. These athletes have sweated, plugged, and fought for East Side even though the going got tough at times. Some day we will look back and have fond memories of them. We will always be proud to say, "They're from East Side." These boys and girls typify the spirit at East Side in that they were always loyal, straight, and never failed to show the Red and White sportsmanship.

We now submit for your approval, the Most Valuable Athlete of the Class of June '39; ladies and gentlemen—Henry Karczewski. "Karch" is one of the greatest all-around athletes that the portals of East Side have ever received, Karch has been on East Side's football, baseball, and gym teams. Switching from end in 1937 to the backfield in 1938, Karch developed into one of the most accurate and long distance kickers in the state. Trying him out for the baseball team in 1938 for the first time Coach Butterworth found in Karch a great pitcher who turned out to be the ace of the staff. He helped no little in pitching the Red and White team into the Greater Newark Championship tournament. In 1937 Karch teamed with Dan Cantalupo (an alumnus of East Side) to bring the State Gymnastic Championship to East Side again. Besides his activities at East Side, Karch has won a place on the Y.M.C.A. team on which he placed second and third on the parallels and rings respectively. To you, Henry Karczewski we say, "May your life be as successful as your athletic accomplishments."

"Sidwa wins in 1:10! Sidwa wins in 1:07! Sidwa wins in 1:06!!" You've probably heard this many times before: "Sidwa wins." Edward Sidwa started swimming while at grammar school where he found a place on the playground team. Starting as a free-styler, he developed into the best breast-stroker that has ever been awarded a Newark diploma. In all exhibitions during the 1938 and 1939 seasons he broke the existing state record and then he snapped his own city record by 3.3 seconds. So, here's luck to a future Olympic star.

Helping East Side in its endeavors on the diamond was John Mihalik, the team's snappy shortstop. Win or lose, it can be said for John, he was in there fighting.

Although not on the first squad, these boys helped in the pinches: Louis Keefe, Ben Kaminskis, and Walter Zebrook, pitchers; Ed Zebrook, catcher; and John Fillimon.

Besides Karczewski, the gridiron team loses: Robert Smith, end; Joe Gaska, Thomas Helme, backs; Joe Valentine, Nick Nosach, Ed Zebrook, tackles; and Philip Peck, center. Ralph Guzzi was assistant manager of football and manager of baseball.

James Clutterback is the only senior member of the track team that graduates. Philip Peck was manager of the track team.

Well fellows and girls; plug, sweat, and fight for the things you want; but remember—the ones who take the knocks of life with their chins up and show their sportsmanship are the ones that usually win out in the end.

REMINISCENCES OF SENIOR

The big day arrived, September 14, 1935. All the graduates of the nearby grammar schools gathered in the auditorium of East Side High. Pupil after pupil was assigned to a home room. After all the home rooms in the main building were filled, a group of approximately three hundred eager freshmen remained. This group was mystified when they were told to report to the old South Market Street School, which was to be the first East Side Annex. A sigh of despair was heard throughout the auditorium as the freshmen started their journey toward the Annex. By the end of October however the students began to enjoy their stay in their new home. By June they had become attached to the building and the splendid faculty under the leadership of Mr. Wilmot. At the end of our Freshman year we were reluctant to leave the scene of many happy escapades, but eager to investigate the mysteries of the main building.

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY

The sooner a youth acquires worth-while information, the better he will be equipped for his journey through life.

One of his most valuable assets in future years will be his life insurance protection.

He should feel free to consult his elders on this subject.

Then he will know what he needs when the time comes to buy it.
